

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, August 21. 1722.

THE following Address has been presented to His Majesty by George Dodington, Esq; Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the County of Somerset, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, and other Gentlemen at the Assizes held at Bridgwater in the County of Somerset, on Tuesday the 31st Day of July 1722.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects being deeply sensible that the Preservation of our happy Constitution both in Church and State, our Laws, and Liberties, and Religion, all that is dear to us as Englishmen and Protestants, do, next under God, depend upon the Safety of your sacred Person and Government, and the Succession as it is by Law established in your Royal Line, do most gratefully acknowledge God's Goodness to these Kingdoms, in preserving your Majesty, and detecting and defeating the many Traiterous Designs formed against you.

The Malice of our Enemies hath in nothing been more successful then in gathering Parties under very good Names, and turning them about to their own most contrary Designs.

Thus by the specious Names of Church and Country, they delude the well-meaning, and draw them into Practices most ruinous to both.

May all that love their Country in Sincerity, may all that have any Value for the Church, be convinced, as there is great Reason, that the most effectual Means to preserve the Liberty and Welfare of the one, the Purity and Prosperity of the other, is to walk worthy of its Principles, and to adhere inviolably to our happy Establishment.

May God long preserve your Majesty to us, the Breath of our Nostrils, the Supporter of our Laws and Liberties, the Defender of our Faith; and may there never be wanting one in your Royal Line to inherit both your Crown and Virtues.

London, August 21.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from France, and another from Flanders.

Moscow, July 13. The Anniversary of the Czar's Coronation was celebrated here the 6th Instant, upon which Occasion the Synod gave a sumptuous Feast; the next Day, being the Anniversary of his Victory at Pultowa, the Senate treated all the foreign Ministers, and the 10th being the Festival of St. Peter, whose Name the Czar bears, Prince Romadodofsky gave a great Entertainment. Count Golofakin the Czar's Minister at Berlin is recalled from thence to take his Seat in the Senate, and his younger Brother is to succeed him at the Prussian Court; 'tis said that Prince Gallizin is to reside at Madrid. M. Caradin, late Secretary to the Russian Embassy at the Hague, where he resided several Years, and arrived here six Weeks ago from Brunswick, shot himself on the 2d Instant, after he had thrust himself in the Belly with his Sword. The cause of his Trouble is not yet publicly known, and the Day before this violent Action he was introduced into the Chancery Office of this Kingdom as Chief Secretary, with an Appointment of 1200 Rubles a Year, and a Promise of having all the Debts cleared he had contracted in foreign Countries. It is reported that the Czar's Troops are building a Fortrefs in Georgia, and that it is to be called Peter's-Haven.

Madrid, Aug. 11. The Infantes set out the 6th Instant from the Buen Retiro to the Escorial: The Princess of Asturias arrived there at Eight a Clock in the Morning, the Infantes in the Afternoon, and the Prince at Eight in the Evening; at the same time the Princess his Spouse, accompanied by the Infante Don Ferdinand, made her publick Entry at the Great Door of the Church, which was illuminated on that Occasion, as is usually done upon the first Entries of the Royal Family; their Catholick Majesties arrived likewise at the Escorial the 8th Instant at Night. Advice is received by Letter from Don Pedro de Monte Major, Commander of the Gallies, that on the 25th of July last, he took in the Middle of the Streights a Moorish Frigate, having killed seven of the Infidels, and made Prisoners the remaining 16.

Hague, Aug. 25. The States of Holland being assembled, have this Day resolved to proceed to the Sale of all the Domains of Holland, notwithstanding the Opposition and Difficulties raised by the Chamber of Accounts. The States have under Deliberation at present, whether the Dutch Squadron in the Mediterranean shall winter in the Ports of Spain, or be ordered home. The Muscovite Ambassadour Prince Kurakin has complained afresh to the States, of the News-Writers of these Countries, for the Liberty they have taken in their Accounts of the Czar and his Designs; he requires that they be made to undergo exemplary Punishment. Prince William of Hesse arrived here some Days ago from Germany, and sets out To-morrow to visit his Sister the Princess of Orange, and the Prince her Nephew, at Soesdyk.

Paris, Aug. 22. The Regent has lately been complimented by the Nobility and Foreign Ministers on the Marriage of Mademoiselle de Beaujolois with the Infante of Spain Don Carlos, who it is said is to be declared Grand Duke of Tuscany, and of Parma and Plaisance; 'tis added, that he is also to be King of Lombardy. It is rumoured, that several other Regiments are to rendezvous in this Neighbourhood, in order to augment the Camp at Marli, where the Fort is building that is to be attacked by the Musketeers and Gends d'Armes for the King's Diversion. It is also rumoured, that the Regent is to be declared in a short Time Lieutenant-General of the Kingdom. Letters from Languedoc say, that very little of the Plague is there, and that it is considerably diminished at Avignon. Notwithstanding the late Reports of the Coronation being delayed beyond the 15th of October, 'tis now the general Discourse that it will certainly be performed on that Day.

Paris, Aug. 26. The King has appointed the Dutchesse de Villars Brancas to conduct to the Spanish Frontiers Mademoiselle de Beaujolois, future Spouse

Spouse of the Prince Don Carlos, who is assured will set out thither immediately after the King's Coronation. The Bishop of Laon, who was bled thrice lately for a dangerous indisposition, is now on the Recovery. It is reported, that the Marechal de Villars will be appointed to represent the Grand Constable of France at the King's Coronation, in the Marechal de Villeroy's Stead. The King's Departure for Rheims is fixed to the 3th of October next, and his Majesty is expected back hither 15 Days afterwards. The King's Governours and Sub-Governours who used lately to sit in his Majesty's Presence whilst he dined; are now ordered to stand behind the Royal Chair, and his Majesty eats his own Meat. The Archbishop of Rheims was consecrated last Sunday in the Noviciate Church of the Jesuits by the Cardinal de Rohan, assisted by the Bishops of Senlis and Soissons. The Cardinal du Bois has been complimented by the Nobility of the Court on his new Dignity of Prime Minister: His Post of Secretary of State is not yet disposed of: 'Tis the general Opinion, it will be given either to the Count of Belle-Isle, or to the Count de Morville; nevertheless it is not likely that Cardinal will part with it very soon, nor likewise of his Superintendency of the Post-Office. Yesterday being the Festival of St. Lewis, the King received the usual Compliments of the Day from all the Nobility and Persons of Quality. Last Sunday the Officers and Soldiers of the Regiment of French Guards were ordered to march with their Tents and Kettles the next Morning to encamp at the Plain de Sablon; but two Hours after they were got there, they received Order to draw off their Piquet-Guard, and return back to their Quarters. The Cardinal du Bois has chosen M. de Montequion Quarter Master of the Musketeers, for his Captain of Guards. The French Academy adjudged Yesterday the Prize of Eloquence to M. Noblet.
